Buttonhole, Overseaming,

SEWING MACHINE,

Has the following advantages over most all other Sewing Machines in the market:

1 It has a tension which prevents cutting of thread or dropping of stitches.

2 It has the most powerful construction, which will insure good work for a quarter of a century.

3 It sews the lightest fabric and the usual shoe leather without any strain whatever.

4 It has a feed bar which can be lowered or raised at will, thus adapting it to all kinds of material.

5 It is impossible to get the machine out of order unless by rust, dirt or taking apart. It will never get out of order by working.

6 It has the highest attainable speed, making 2,500 stitches per minute by foot, and 3,000 by steam.

7 It is the lightest running shuttle machine.

8 It makes the most beautiful lock stitch.

9 It has the handsomest appearance.

10 It has the strongest, most convenient, handsome polished, braced table, with drawer, and board to prevent soiling the dress.

11 Its cover is polished, fitting and locked as a little trunk. There is nothing better than this to preserve the machine.

12 It has straight needle.

13 Four bobbins hold a spool of cotton.

14 It has the best hemmer.

15 It has the most complete attachment, the Jack-of-all-trades, hems, fills, binds, bastes, tucks, braids and ruffles.

16 It is as simple as any machine in the market.

17 It needs but little time to learn its operation.

18 It has the best embroidery attachment.

19 It sews on straight a piece without pulling another at the same time without basting, attachment or after work.

These advantages combine the best qualities of a sewing machine for the family who want to use it steadily in all kinds of work. Nothing equal can be found in the way of combining the advantages of all the sewing machines now known, while obviating all their faults.

THE FOLLOWING ADVANTAGES

1 It has a larger arm and stronger construction than any family machine, admitting larger pieces of work, thus fitting the machine to family and manufacturing purposes as well, without need of two machines. It has 8 1/2 x 5 inches clear room.

2 It hems any width or thickness, from 1-16 of an inch cambric to 2 inches leather.

3 It binds a coat, a skirt, or a hat without any braid or binding whatever.

4 It folds up the brim of a hat to any fullness.

5 It overseams a sheet or Brussels carpet.

6 It makes beautiful eyelet work.

7 It embroiders on the edge.

8 It makes buttonholes of any size on any material.

9 It has the braiding machine which makes braid of size or color at the rate of 150 yards per hour. This sells for $10 extra.

10 It always won the first premium at every exhibition in which it has been entered.

THE AMERICAN

Can be had as a plain sewing machine without the buttonhole and overseaming, at $15 less than the given prices.

We want a few reliable agents everywhere, to whom we will make it an object to sell these popular machines.

Machines will be sent to any address on receipt of price. Every machine has a full outfit for plain sewing, hemming, &c.

We simply ask an examination to verify all we state.

LINES

Written in St. Ann's Churchyard at the grave of A. J. B. by Sleep, little Annie, sleep!

Sweet girl, thou wilt not be forgot;

For many eyes will weep

Full oft above this hallowed spot.

Here summer-birds will sing,

And here the summer-flowers will bloom;

And many an off'ring

For years be cast upon thy tomb.

Now, Autumn leaves fall ere

This consecrated spot around;

And Winter's frosty tread

Will soon bedew this sacred ground.

But Spring will come again,

In all her resurrecting power,—

Sweet sunshine and soft rain,

Green leaf, and bud and flower.—

The sweet soft winds will play,

And dew-drops fall on-bred, pure and bright,

Will make each bending spray

Glow in the glorious morning light.—

Sleep on, and take thy rest!

The grave shall not always retain

Thy form; thy gentle breast

With life shall thrum and thrill again!

That joyous Spring shall come

When Christ shall bid each loved-one rise,

And in you blessed home

Beyond those sweet, blue, bending skies,—

In one eternal Spring

The flower planted nigh this sod

Shall bloom, an offering

Meet for the Paradise of God!

MIDDLETOWN, DEL.

SATURDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 12, 1870.

VICTORY!!!

In honor of the glorious victory gained at the polls on Tuesday last, a Congressional Meeting of Democratic and Conservative citizens will be held at the Hotel of Geo. W. Orp, in Middletown, this (Saturday) evening, at 7 o'clock. Address appropriate to the occasion will be made by Hon. B. T. Biggs and others. The Townsend and Odessa Bands will be present. All white men are invited to attend. There will also be a Grand Illumination in the town, between the hours of 7 and 9, in which all white men are invited to participate.

MANY DEMOCRATS.

Nov. 12, 1870.

THE ELECTIONS.

The great political battle of November, 1870, ended on Tuesday last, and was the most peaceful and quiet election held for many years. One hundred and thirty-three members of Congress were chosen in twenty States of the Union, deciding the political status of the Forty-second Congress which convenes next month.

Louisiana and Arkansas voted on Monday, and on Tuesday Delaware voted for Governor, one member of Congress, members of the Legislature and local officers, Maryland for five Congressmen, Virginia for nine members of Congress and local officers, New York, Missouri, Alabama, Michigan, Nevada, Kansas, Massachusetts and Tennessee for Governor and Congressmen, New Jersey, Florida, Illinois, Kentucky, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Rhode Island for Congressmen and local officers.

The election in Arkansas was for a Legislature and three members of Congress. The last Legislature contained one Democrat in House and one in the Senate. The Legislature elected on Monday have to choose a U. S. Senator. Louisiana voted for members of Congress and a Legislature, the Legislature to elect a U. S. Senator and to act on four proposed constitutional amendments. The States elected an aggregate of one hundred and thirty-three Congressmen, and are represented in the present House as follows:

	Dem.	Rep.
New York	12	10
Massachusetts	—	19
New Jersey	3	2
Rhode Island	—	2
Illinois	4	10
Michigan	—	6
Wisconsin	1	5
Nevada	—	1
Minnesota	—	1
Maryland	5	3
Delaware	1	3
Virginia	5	3
Tennessee	5	3
Kentucky	9	3
Alabama	2	4
Louisiana	—	5
Missouri	2	7
Florida	—	1
Arkansas	1	2
Kansas	—	1
	50	83

The Democrats have made large gains everywhere except in New Jersey, where they have lost one Congressman and the Legislature and consequently a United Senator. In Delaware the Democrats have elected their State Ticket by about 2,500 majority; and the Legislature is entirely Democratic. The Democratic majority in New Castle County is 509 for Sheriff and from 57 to 132 on the rest of the ticket. Kent county 700 Democratic and Sussex county 1500 Democratic.

The Democrats have gained four Congressmen in New York, and probably four in Illinois, five in Tennessee, one in Wisconsin and one in Michigan, one in Alabama, two in Arkansas. Further returns will show more gains of Congressmen, and the Republicans will not have more than eleven majority in the next Congress. The Democracy have not only gained a large number of Congressmen, but it appears now that three and probably four of the States which have hitherto been under Radical control have followed the example of West Virginia and wheeled into the Democratic line. The Democrats of Maryland, with 36,000 negro votes to contend with, have swept everything, electing all of their Congressmen (five) and with a majority in the State of 18,600. New York has gone Democratic by 35,000 majority, and the Legislature is Democratic as before. Nevada, for the first time since its organization as a State, has been carried by the Democrats. The Radicals concede the election of Bradley (Democrat) for Governor, though they still claim the Congressmen.

The indications are that Arkansas has been swept by the Democrats. The entire Congressional delegation is claimed. Alabama shows signs of having elected the Democratic state ticket headed by Mr. Lindsay for Governor, with three Democratic Congressmen. The same symptoms appear in Florida.

The Government had troops at the polls in New York, Maryland, and in several of the Southern States, hoping thereby to intimidate Democratic voters and give the State over to the Radicals. The States of California, Connecticut, New Hampshire, Georgia, and Texas, all have to vote this fall, and probably with the following result as to Congressmen:—California, Democrats, 3; Connecticut, Democrats, 2, and Republicans, 2; Georgia, Democrats, 5 and Republicans, 2; New Hampshire, Republicans, 5; Texas, Democrats, 2, and Republicans, 2. The present House of Representatives stands 51 Democrats, 172 Republicans and 5 Conservatives; the next will consist of about 108 Democrats, 122 Republicans, and 3 conservatives, leaving a Republican majority of 11.

A party of unprincipled white men were sent down from Wilmington to Blackbird on Tuesday last, for the purpose of stealing the ballot-box. A timely letter, however, from Jesse Sharp, Esq., to Samuel Townsend, Esq., apprised the Democrats of the fact and put them on their guard. The party was waited upon by the Democrats, and invited to leave as soon as possible, which they did, running their horses as they went. This proceeding shows what a desperate straight the Radical party was in, and to what mean and contemptible tricks they would stoop to gain power.

The Wilmington Gazette says:—The Radicals of this city driven to the depths of infuriated despair, left no device known to rascality and villany untried to obtain success in this county. Not content with negro riots, with voting negroes who could not give their ages up on oath, and dragging negro repeaters from poll to poll and hundred to hundred, they imported it is said about two hundred thieves, pickpockets and ruffians from Philadelphia to assist their nefarious schemes. The greater part of these wretches were distributed and concealed in various quarters of the city, with the intent to vote and then repeat them in the different wards. About 40 succeeded in the villany before detection, and the rest were prevented in the Democratic wards by the election officers apprised of the scheme. Twelve were despatched to St. Georges, Appoquinimink and Red Lion Hundreds with the instructions to attack the polls and seize the ballot-boxes. A timely warning sent ahead, however, nipped this conspiracy in the bud, and the roughs were unaccountably allowed to return to Wilmington unharmed by a justly indignant people.

A CLEAN SWEEP.—Maryland has made a clean sweep of it, electing all five of the Democratic Congressmen by handsome majorities. The Republicans were confident of carrying the 1st, 4th and 5th districts, but the negroes, the marshals, and the military were to much for the people to put up with, and many an honest republican vote was cast for the Democratic candidates. White men are determined to remain masters of this country, and the attempt to drag them down to a level with the negroes has recoiled upon the heads of its authors. The negroes in Maryland and Delaware were relied upon to wrest both these States from the hands of the Democrats, but the effort has been fruitless. Will the Radical leaders learn a lesson from these results, or will they, with Sumner at their head, try more stringent measures still, and pass his infamous bill now pending in the U. S. Senate? We shall see. Negroes and soldiers are not the cards to win, as the late elections have proved. The Democrats know a trick worth two of that.

Peterson's Magazine for December is on our table in advance. It is unusually splendid even for "Peterson." It has two superb steel plates, a mammoth colored fashion plate, a costly colored Berlin pattern, and more than fifty wood engravings. "Peterson" is unquestionably one of the cheapest and best of the lady's books. It will give, in 1871, one thousand pages of reading, 14 steel engravings, 12 double-size colored steel fashion plates, 24 pages of music, and about 900 wood engravings. Another leading merit of this Magazine is its unequalled stories and novelets. Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, Frank Lee Benedict, and others of the writers, contribute to it exclusively. In 1871 there will be given five copyright novelets, besides about one hundred short stories. The price of "Peterson's" is only two dollars a year to single subscribers, while other magazines of its class are three or four. To clubs the terms are lower still, viz: five copies for $8 or eight copies for $12. Every person getting up either of these clubs will receive the magazine for 1871 gratis, and also a splendid copy-right engraving (24 inches by 20), "Washington at the battle of Trenton," of the merit of which we can speak from personal inspection. Address Charles J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. The Transcript and Peterson's Magazine will be furnished for the year of 1871, for $3.40, to all new subscribers. Every person subscribing for the Transcript for the year 1871 will receive it from now till the end of the year gratis, the name in every instance must be accompanied by the cash.

The attention of Peach Growers is called to the advertisement of J. B. Claggett, in another column, who has Peach trees of the Plowden's Seedling variety for sale. This variety ripens twenty days earlier than Hails Early, the earliest peach known to the Peach Growers of this Peninsula.

SOLDIERS IN MARYLAND.—The soldiers sent to the polls in Maryland did not impede the election, whatever, nearly all of them being demoe rats. In many instances they went gunning, and those that did remain at the poll electioneered for democratic candidates.

LOCAL AND STATE AFFAIRS.

DISURBANCE AT ODESSA.—A fight took place at Odessa, on the morning of the election, between the whites and blacks. We do not know that we can give a correct version of it, but the following statement of the affair is as near correct as our information will permit. A non-resident black man presented himself at the polls to vote, three times, but was as often turned away. Presenting himself again, his persistence occasioned some excitement and remonstrance, on the part of the whites. When the crowd of whites and blacks grew so dense as to obstruct free access to the polls. Just then a colored man, named John Williams, who lives in a house belonging to Mr. John P. Cochran, stepped up on the hotel porch with a club in his hand, and a threatening position. Mr. Cochran observing him, said "John, what are you going to do with that club? Give it to me," taking hold of his arm and pressing him back to keep him from going into the crowd of excited white men. There had been no fighting up to this time, but a black man just then rushed upon Mr. Cochran and gave him a blow with a stick upon the side of the head that felled him to the ground. A rush was then made upon the negroes by the Democrats, and sticks and stones were vigorously used on both sides. The fight did not take place at the place of voting, but in the street nearly opposite, and lasted for four or five minutes. Two pistol shots were heard, but by whom fired is not positively known. A colored man living with Wm. Green, Esq., who was not in the fight, received a pistol shot in the leg, and a white man, named William, emerged from the conflict with contused heads and quite bloody. One stalwart young white man snatched a cudgel from the hands of a negro, and dashed into the thickest of the fray. He fired a shot, and a wheelbarrow full of stones from a stick and another from a stone, and although literally covered with gore, he felled the negroes right and left and fought right through the crowd of the negroes. From fifty to a hundred seemed to be engaged in the fight, the negroes being so hard pressed that they finally gave way and retreated up the street, although they exhorted each other to "stand your ground," "don't run," and like rallying cries. The first blow was struck by a negro, as we were informed by persons in the midst of the crowd. And the fight originated from the attempt of a negro man to vote who had no residence, the negro being urged to do so by a white man. There was no interruption of the voting, for ballots were deposited while the battle was going on. In the progress of the fight a wheelbarrow full of stones at a white man, and another made a cut at his neck from behind, but fortunately was not quite near enough to reach his intended victim. The next instant the knife of the white man clove the flesh of the negro, and the negro was cut at a white man, and another made a cut at his neck from behind, but fortunately was not quite near enough to reach his intended victim. HAYRIDE GRACK BLOCKED.—The cyclist police fleet of the State or a portion of it, we learn, arrived about the beginning of this week at Havre de Grace, for the purpose of regulating the duckers of that vicinity. A naval engagement on the head waters of the Chesapeake may be daily expected.

We gather the following from the Wilmington papers in regard to the riots there on election day:—The election was the occasion of numerous outrages by the radicals. The negroes paraded the streets in large bodies, armed with revolvers, razors, clubs, &c. They passed from one ward to another, for the purpose of creating a disturbance. The sixth ward poll was the scene of a riot, shortly after noon, during which pistols, razors and brick bats were brought into requisition. The negroes came running to the scene of disorder in large numbers, from the direction of their headquarters, all well armed and eager for the fray. The negroes drove the whites from the polls. During the fight one negro was shot in the head, a white man through the arm, and several others slightly wounded. It is said that from 50 to 70 shots were fired. The second riot took place at the time the polls closed, five o'clock.

The negroes came upon the ground in large bodies, and commenced another attack, during this fight there were several seriously wounded, and one young man named Richard Pointer was taken to his residence on French street, seriously wounded.

It is reported that several were killed. It is also reported that a policeman was seen to stand upon the corner and fire four shots into the party of whites.

The Sheriff was attacked by a desperate negro with a bayonet, the officers and all others who were associated with the Sheriff were also attacked and badly injured.

The crowd of negroes paraded about the ward yelling and shouting desperately. Prof. Wm. Howard Day, (negro), harrassed the infuriated mob, and when requested by the Sheriff to induce the murderous crowd to disperse, he answered that he would try to do so, but he thought the Sheriff should take the white man also.

The Sheriff was cut through the clothing with a razor, in the hands of a desperate negro, and for a few moments his life was in imminent peril.

During the riot at the Sixth ward, the blood-thirsty negroes rushed into the residences and beat up the white men. One man named Zebby was badly beaten.

The Deputy Marshals carried their badges in the pockets and with their hands full of tickets were electorizing around the polls.

In several of the wards it is said the Police were very busy during the day electioneering.

A NOVEL BET.—Thomas Cochran and George W. Ingram, Esqrs. of this county, made a novel bet on the late election in this county, the loser to give the winner a wheelbarrow full of stones from a stick and another from a stone, and although literally covered with gore, he felled the negroes right and left and fought right through the crowd of the negroes. From fifty to a hundred seemed to be engaged in the fight, the negroes being so hard pressed that they finally gave way and retreated up the street, although they exhorted each other to "stand your ground," "don't run," and like rallying cries. The first blow was struck by a negro, as we were informed by persons in the midst of the crowd.
